Route #15 Hallim – Gonae Olle

Jeju Olle Trail heads back to the ocean. Jeju Olle Trail Route #15 begins at the sea in Hallim, passes through the villages, farmlands and oreums (small inactive volcano) on the land, and back to the sea in Gonae. Outstanding scenery unfolds at the Hallimhang (harbor), with seagulls and wild geese over the sea to your left. Just like a flock of pigeons in an inner city park. The wooden statue of a seagull and live seagulls lingering around create a strangely pleasant art piece. The distance grows between yourself and the waters as soon as you pass Hansu-ri.

This marks the beginning of the village Olle. A lone village appears, followed by evergreen fields with small ponds, two oreums and a hidden warm-temperate forest. Make wild guesses on where the road will take you next. Scenery only gets better as you walk deeper into the route. You still get a hint of the blue sea in the fields and oreums. Drawn to the ocean, we arrive at Gonae-pogu (port). It is the end of Route #15. The red sunset by the trees near Baeyeomgol Trail is a gift for those who have endured the long journey.

Transportation

Attractions

Yeongsaesaeungmul It is a pond on bedrock, some parts exceeding 1m in depth. A house was built with the clay dug up from this spot, and a pond formed naturally. Popular among the local residents to watch swallows play by the pond. The place has different names, such as Yeomsaeseomul, Yeongseosaengyumul, Yeongsaesaeungmul, Yeongsaeaeungmul.

Geumsan Park Next to Napeup Elementary School is the forest of the warm-temperate wild plants. Silver Magnolia, Japanese Cinnamon, Aucuba, Blue Japanese Oak, Japanese Coral Tree, and Camellias form an evergreen forest even during the winter. It is a rare evergreen forest on flatland, and is designated as the 375th Natural Heritage because of its scholastic value. It is a place where the aristocrats of the island wrote poems or exchanged friendly conversations. It is an ideal place for the tired souls to cool down under the trees in summers, and stay warm in winters.

Haga-ri stonewalls and Yeonhwa-mot Haga-ri is a village located to the right of the main roads down Gonae-bong (peak). It is not part of the trail, but, if you have time, we recommend you to pay a visit. All houses in the village were restored by replacing their fences with old stonewalls. Yeonhwa-mot (pond), the largest pond in Jeju, is located at the center of the village. The width of the pond is 12,200 square meters, filled with lotus blossoms in summer.

Gonae-bong (peak) It is an oreum (small inactive volcano) located to the southeast of Gonae-ri. It isn't too tall, but it still blocks the sight of Halla-san from the village. The village became one of the few spots in Jeju where Halla-san (mountain) is not visible. It takes about 20 minutes to the top by foot. There are exercise posts installed near the top and what makes it better is the magnificent open view of Halla-san (mountain). While Halla-san (mountain) isn't visible from the village, Gonae-bong (peak) brought to the village people the gym with the best view. Gonae-bong (peak) was named after the name of the village, and has also been called Goni Oreum or Gono Oreum.
